

Welcome to Germany.info

Gerlind Institut and Excelsior Center

Feb 13, 2011 2:00 PM

| Oakland, CA

Linden (© Gerlind Institut)

Invitation to a Community Roundtable

Spend a special afternoon with three extraordinary people who escaped the Holocaust via the Kindertransport to England. Rita Goldhor from Vienna, Leo Mark Horovitz from Frankfurt a.M., and Ralph Samuel from Dresden will speak about their lives and complex relationships to their language German, and its cultural environment. All three now reside in the San Francisco East Bay area. They will dialogue with one another and the audience.

Moderated by Dr. Marion Gerlind and Judy Eisenberg, the event will be in English.

[Invitation Flyer \[pdf, 485.38k\]](#)

www.Gerlindinstitut.org

Excelsior German Center

Date and Location:

Sunday, February 13, 2011 2-4 p.m.

Prior Hall at the Altenheim 1699 Excelsior Avenue, Oakland, CA

Street parking only, this event is wheelchair accessible.

General Admission : 15 $

GICS and EEG members, seniors, students, Children (under 13) : 10 $

Advance tickets at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/143448

HISTORIC RESPONSIBILITY

Germany is profoundly aware of the historic responsibility it bears toward the Jewish community and toward the State of Israel as a result of the crimes of the Nazi regime. This responsibility, a cornerstone of German policy, requires remembrance, reconciliation and ongoing vigilance now and in the future.

Historic Responsibility
